

Specialized product: Braille conversion services

Why:

Braille documents are used by persons who are blind and are Braille literate. This is not the majority of the blind population, although the AFB reports 93% of the employed blind read and write Braille.

Acquisition – services that can mass produce Braille with quick turn around:

Braille Works

941 Darby Lake Street
Seffner, Florida 33584
1-800-258-7544
Fax: 1-813-689-8628
brailleworks@brailleworks.com
<http://www.brailleworks.com/>
Contact: Lou Fioritto

Transcribing Mariners

10675 Harris Road
Auburn, CA 95603-9563
Phone: (530) 823-2209, (530) 823-2063
Contact: Bob Walling or Peggy Schuetz
bigonbrl@yahoo.com

Braille Institute

Los Angeles Sight Center
741 North Vermont Avenue
Los Angeles, CA 90029
Phone: 323-663-1111
E-mail: la@brailleinstitute.org
Contact: Nancy Niebrugge 323-906-3113 or Jackie Garcia 323-906-3104

Be Aware Of

Braille documents can be physically bulky.

Section 508 Applicable provisions:

No Section 508 provisions apply as this item is not EIT. Rather it provides an alternative format mandated to meet the Information, Documentation and Supports standards.